Personal data that the shareholder submits in connection with the subscription or that is otherwise registered in connection therewith, is used by Nordea for the purposes of preparation and administration of the subscription. Personal data may also be used by other companies with which Nordea cooperates. If a shareholder wishes to receive information about the personal data relating to him/her that is held by Nordea, the shareholder can request such information by writing to the above address. If a shareholder wishes to correct inaccurate or misleading information, he/she can contact Nordea at the above address.

No customer relation is formed between the person who subscribes for shares in the rights issue and Nordea solely based on that Nordea handles the application forms by instruction from Sweco.

Important information

The offering is not directed to persons domiciled in Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, Japan, New Zealand or, subject to certain exceptions, the United States or in any other jurisdiction where it would be illegal to offer the subscription rights, the BTAs or the new shares or where such measures are subject to legal restrictions or would require additional prospectuses, other offer documentation, registrations or other actions in addition to what follows from Swedish law. Neither the subscription rights nor the BTAs or the new shares being granted and offered, respectively, in the offering have been or will be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Neither the prospectus nor the application form may be distributed or published in any country or any jurisdiction where the distribution or publishing of the prospectus or the offering requires such measures or would conflict with regulations in such country or jurisdiction (for more information, see section 22 in the prospectus "Restrictions on sale and transfer etc."). The Prospectus has been passported into the Netherlands, Finland and Norway.

Application to subscribe for shares in violation of the restrictions described above may be void.
